Unleashing Influence

The Power to Change EVERYTHING

"Every person and organization is influenced and who or what we allow to influence our lives will ultimately determine our outcome."

-Terry Gurno

The most powerful thing about influence is that you don't see it taking place. You only see the result. By then it may be too late. In life and business driving the results you want is critical and the right influence is essential.

In this 60 minute presentation you'll discover 4 primary influences that are creating change in you and through you, how you can monitor and manage them, and how to unleash them to create the change you want in your life, community, business, and world.
